DISCLAIMER

SINGLES. Rihanna's SOS comes out on top this week to debut at #1. Not the same song as Abba's 1976 No.1 hit of the same name, SOS is the second single to debut at No.1 this year following Chris Brown's Run It! in January. The chart topping debut causes most of the other entries in the top 10 to slip a spot or three with the only exception being Ne-Yo whose former US No.1 hit So Sick steps up one position to land at No.7 this week in its second week in the chart.

No.1 SOS - Rihanna. Born Robyn Rihanna Fenty, this green eyed Caribbean beauty needs no help in the music department that's for sure, already having two top 10 singles, in her very short but impressive career! If It's Lovin' That You Want peaked #9 early this year and Pon De Replay peaked at #6 in November last year. Some of you may recognise the backing melody of SOS - if you guessed 80s track Tainted Love (#1 Nov. '81) by electro-funk outfit, Soft Cell you are correct! Keep watch for her second album A Girl Like Me.

No.14 WISEMEN - James Blunt. James recently hit our shores for a national tour that is taking Australia by storm. His debut album is Back To Bedlam which has already spent 11 non consecutive weeks at the pinnacle spot. It has spawned four hit singles which include High (#65 Aug. '05), Goodbye My Lover (#3 Jan. '06) and one of the most requested songs for weddings last year - You're Beautiful (#2 Nov. '06). Blunt's road to fame began during the 2003 South by Southwest music conference. He caught the attention of songwriter/producer Linda Perry (ex 4 Non Blondes) who immediately signed Blunt to her Custard label.

No.22 UNPREDICTABLE - Jamie Foxx. This now very super duper superstar skyrocketed to fame in 2004 when he took home the coveted Best Actor Academy Award, for his role portrayal of Ray Charles in the biopic Ray. This made Foxx the fourth person in the history of the Oscars to have both scored a #1 album and won an Academy Award. On the charts this is his first Singles chart entry in his own right having previously featured in Twista's Slow Jamz (#26 May '04) and Kanye West's Gold Digger (#1 Oct. '05). Now with releases of his own he is hoping for a #1 here to match his effort at home in the States, where his debut album, also called Unpredictable (#39 here in Mar. '06), topped their charts for three consecutive weeks.

No.43 DIRTY SOUTH EP - Dirty South. ARIA Award nominated producer, Dirty South slices through the chart with his huge EP, which features one of the biggest dance tracks to hit '06 so far, a remix of Evermore's It's Too Late. It has been given a complete face lift, being totally jacked up and tweaked out for any electro loving fan. Dirty South aka Dragan Roganovic, who hails from Melbourne, has been at the forefront of the ARIA Club charts recently with his It's Too Late rework spending the last six weeks at the top of the chart. Also on the ARIA Club Chart are Such A Freak, which sits at #6 and Spank at #23 this week. Both are featured on this EP.

No.49 WHERE'D YOU GO - Fort Minor. Mike Shinoda of Linkin Park has brought together his close friends and presents his side project - Fort Minor. The name Fort Minor was chosen purely to reflect the dynamics between opposites... something big and strong (Fort) versus something small and slight (Minor). Shinoda wrote and played nearly every instrument for each track on the debut album The Rising Tied which was produced by Jay-Z. This is the second single lifted from the album following Believe Me which peaked at #43 last November.

No.50 ONE WISH - Ray J. Ray started in the entertainment industry at the young age of 6, starting in commercials. This in time lead to bigger acting opportunities which included a role in the movie Mars Attacks! and then a role under his big sister Brandy's wing in her TV series Moesha. Inspired by Brandy's journey in the music industry, Ray J turned his head to music, releasing Let It Go, which peaked at #85 in June 1997 and more recently he collaborated with sis, Brandy on her hit Another Day In Paradise, which peaked at #11 in July 2001. Ray J's current album Raydiation is out now.

No.67 WHEN YOU WASN'T FAMOUS - The Streets. Mike Skinner a Birmingham native is The Streets. Skinner's musical journey began in his mid teens when he produced his first tracks. In the late '90s he worked a number of inconsequential jobs while shopping his tracks around and trying to start his own Label. Ultimately his debut single Weak Become Heroes (No.74 Aug 2002) introduced his style of UK garage music to the masses. Since then Skinner has hit the Australian charts with three more singles - Fit But You Know It (#37 May '04), Dry Your Eyes (#42 Aug. '04), and Blinded By The Lights (#92 Feb. '05).

No.79 THE YEAH YEAH YEAH SONG - The Flaming Lips. The Flaming Lips formed in Oklahoma City in 1983, when founder and guitarist Wayne Coyne allegedly stole a collection of musical instruments from an area church hall and recruited his brother Mark and bassist Michael Ivins to start a band. In the group's lifetime they have had quite a number personnel changes with the line-up currently being Mark Coyne at the helm, Steven Drozda on drums and Michael Ivins on bass. This is their second single to chart in Australia following She Don't Use Jelly which peaked at #25 in March 1995.

No.96 WOMAN IN LOVE - Liz McClarnon. This former member of Atomic Kitten was born Elizabeth "Liz" Margaret McClarnon on April 10, 1981 in Liverpool, England. McClarnon originally wanted to study Law after High School, but her music teacher was so impressed by her singing abilities that she arranged for her to take part in an audition for Andy McCluskey (formerly of OMD). This resulted in her becoming a founding member of the highly successful trio Atomic Kitten. For her first attempt at a solo career Liz has chosen a classic Barry Gibb penned track that was a #1 hit for Barbra Streisand in 1980.

Albums. James "Blunty" Blunt holds at #1 for another week with his debut album Back To Bedlam. In three separate runs that began last August, the album has now logged up a total of 11 weeks at No.1 which moves it into equal second place (with the 2001 Moulin Rouge Soundtrack) in terms of longevity at No.1 so far this Decade / Century. It still has significant mileage to make up on the current leader in that category, Delta Goodrem's 2003 debut album Innocent Eyes which racked an impressive 29 weeks at the top! Aussie acts maintain their strong showing in the top 10 again holding down 6 of the 10 spots. Continuing their impressive chart ascent, Brisbane sisterly duo The Veronicas reach a new peak this week as their The Secret Life Of... album replaces the Rogue Traders album Here Come The Drums in the No.2 position. A quartet of former No.1 Aussies hold down the last four spots in the top 10 - Bernard Fanning holding at No.7 for his 21st week in the top 10 with Tea And Sympathy, Peter Murray returns for his 8th week in the top 10 with See The Sun (it was last in the top 10 last November and had slipped as low as No.33 before its resurgence), the Hilltop Hoods slip another 4 spots to No.9 with the record that was No.1 two weeks ago The Hard Road and rounding out the 10 are Human Nature with their tribute to early Soul music Reach Out: The Motown Record.

No.4 SONGS FROM BLACK MOUNTAIN - Live. Anyone looking for a band that epitomized the term "Album Oriented Rock" need look no further than Live. Together since the early 1980s, Chad Taylor, Patrick Dahlheimer and Chad Gracey enlisted vocalist Ed Kowalczyk toward the end of that decade and since the mid 1990s have had 7 of their 8 albums reach the top 4 of the ARIA Charts (including 3 No.1 hits). On the Singles Chart on the other hand, their highest chart position has been the No.13 peak of Lightning Crashes from their breakthrough 1995 album Throwing Copper. This current album has produced one chart single to date, The River which peaked at No.33 a few weeks ago and is now at No.45.

No.23 WOLVES IN WOLVES' CLOTHING - NoFX. Despite many lineup changes through the years since their formation in 1983, this Californian Indie Punk band has remained consistent to their left leaning ideals and alternative roots. While their output has been prolific since the late 1980s, their chart returns in Australia have been modest due, in part, to their uncompromising political stance and loyalty to Indie distribution. This is their 7th Australian top 100 album, falling just short of the peak of their biggest, Pump Up The Valuum which reached No.19 in 2000.

No.52 YES VIRGINIA - The Dresden Dolls. Bostonians Brian Viglione and Amanda Palmer formed this duo in 2001. Self described as "Brechtian punk cabaret", their music and style is an unusual combination of modern Alternative Goth and 1920s German Vamp (hence the Dresden reference). This is their second album but first to reach the top 100 following a self titled debut release that came out in September 2004. Australia is the third Country in the World in which this album was released after the USA and Italy (although it is now available in many other markets).

No.69 GREATEST HITS 2: REFLECTED - Tim McGraw. When it comes to status in the realm of US Country music, Tim McGraw has it in bucket loads! Not only is he a Country Superstar in his own right, but he is married to (and has collaborated musically with) Faith Hill whose star also shines bright over Nashville. He first charted in Australia in 1994 when his second release Not A Moment Too Soon reached No.78 (it has sold over 5 million copies in the USA). A recent No.2 hit in his homeland, his latest and 8th Australian top 100 album ends an almost 18 month absence from the Australian charts (since September 2004) when Live Like You Were Dying peaked at No.36.
